NETCENTS-2 BENEFITS

- Leverages buying power through competition at task order level

- Saves time in execution: past performance, market research, background work completed; contracting officers execute task orders not contracts

- Increases AF standardization for operational and life cycle savings

- Strengthens network security by common compliance w/ AF & DoD standards

- Incorporates technical policies, language and clauses so each customer doesn't have to research (or miss) for each task order

- Provides centralized checklists

- Provides sample and standardized task orders for repeatable tasks

WHERE WE BUY

- 70% of Task Orders are at AFMC Bases
